WE learn from the Alta California that the Hon. O. N. Donny, of Portland, Oregon, arrived in San Francisco on the 8th Decem-Per Perim, at 5 p.m., on Saturday, the ber. Our contemporary says :- He has, for four years past, been U. S. Consul-Gen-Per Taisang, at 10.30 a.m., on Tuesday, the 12th inst. eral at Shanghai. Last July he was toudered and accepted the position of Inspector-P.r Venetia, at 2.30 p.m., on Wednesday, General of Customs and Head of Foreign Affairs by the Corean Government. The position is an important one, with a big salary. He leaves for his post of duty the SYDNEY, MELBOURNE, ADElatter part of the month (December).

> Another house robbery of a most and scious character took place near the Man Mo Temple in Hollywood Road yesterday about half-past 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Four men, armed with knives, &c., gained admittance to a family house in the vicinity named on the pretext that they were detectives and constables come to acrest gambiers, and, after threatening the inmates, women and children, appropriated all the valuables easily portable in the house, and then made off. One man, in removing a bangle from the arm of one of the women, inflicted a scratch on her arm with a dagger to stop her resistance. We cannot say whether or not the case has been reported to the Police, but up to this forencou no one had been arrested in connection with the robbery.

BULBS THE Zarzuela Spanish Opera Company, which will give their opening performance on Saturday evening in the Theatre Royal City Hall, consists of twenty-three mem. bers, twelve of whom are vocalists and actors and sotresses, the remainder being musiciana. There are three ladies in the Company, who are all vocalists of ability. The orchestra will be presided over by Maestro Cosca at the grand piano, and among the instruments there will be four violins, a violincello, cornet, &c. The programme of Saturday's entertainment has now been published, and the fare promised is both varied and plentiful, and also of a novel character. The attractions held out ought to be sufficient to draw a large attendance of all classes, especially of the Portuguese community.

Says the Japan Mail of the 29th ultimo :-A story is going the round of the Japanese press that China has concluded a loan of fifty milions-sterling through the agency of Jardine. Matheson and Company. The flgure is tall enough to set people wandering, but its dimensions do not appear to have excited much distrust. We need scarcely say that it is an absurd exaggeration. A loan has been concluded, but only for a fraction of the amount reported. The part played by the great Eastern firm is also misrepresented, but upon this point we are not a liberty to be explicit. It is not at all likely that the money-which, by the way, has been obtained by China on very favourable may soon expect to hear of a conflict comterms-will be applied to purposes of railway construction. Neither do we think that the loan, as has been suggested by one of our Tokyo contemporaries, has any reference to the navel reforms recently entrusted to the Vicercy of Chihli. The negotiations were in progress before these reforms were Calvin Pratt. -Alta California. even talked of publicly, and the money was actually in Peking before the Viceroy paid his last visit to that city. We do not expect to see the railway problem solved without further delay. The Franco-Chinese treaty. as we pointed out at the time, created a new obstacle, by adding a prospect of diplomatic tached to the Tokio Maru for piloting complications to the normal conservatism duties during her recent voyage to Korea. of the Chinese. Our advices from Peking are to the effect that the French Mission, be came in contact. now engaged negotiating the commercial convention for Tonquin, is also trying to render practically fruitful the railway clause of the Tientsin Treaty, but that the prospects of success are very small in-

JUST as the Servo-Bulgarian difficulty i approaching what seems to be a peaceful settlement, another portion of the complicated Eastern Question threatens to cause serious trouble. The Greek Government, according to Renter's telegram received yesterday, have again preferred their claim to have the Greek frontier extended. This time, however, they have dropped the con ciliatory tone in which they first approached the Great Powers, and have also presented somewhat different claim. In the early of November, before hostilities between Baland Bulgaria had commenced, the Greek Government addressed to the Great Powers what was term d a conciliatory note. demanding the extension of the Greek frontier as adjudged by the Berlin Treaty.

At the time we wrote :-Greece's demand, as conveyed in today's telegram, that the Greek frontier should be extended to Epirus, as adjudged by the Berlin Treaty, is one which she is perfectly justified in making, though it is rather unfortunate for the peace of Europe that she should have made it just at the present moment. Epirus, formerly a portion of Ancient Greece, has, since the 15th century, formed part of modern Albania. and was consequently under Turkish rules The Berlin Congress of 1878 recommended that the southern part of Epirus, from the Kalamas river, whose outlet is directly apposite the southern and of the well-

MR H. R. Best, who for the past three known island of Corfu, should be restored years, has filled the post of Assistant to Greece. This recommendation was carried into effect theoretically by a treaty 66 Gordon executed by Turkey with Greece, under pressure of the Great Powers, in June, 1881. Practically, however, this portion of the province, as well as the southern; part of the adjoining province of Thessaly, also restored to Greece under the same circumstances, is still under Turkish rule.

> A day or two after we learned that the Greek Chamber had voted a large sum of money to increase the navy and consented to the raising of a large patrictic loan, despite the fact that they had been warned against arming by the Great Powers. It is now apparent that the determination to obtain what they think, rightly too, their due has not abated. A telegram in the American papers dated Athens, November 30, shows that the Government are prepared to fight if need be. It says :- The President of the Council has informed the foreign Consuls that it is feared that a struggle between Greece and Turkey is mevitable. Yesterday's telegram is another indication that this determined spirit still prevails, and unless the Great Powers aid the Greeks in some way to get possession of that which was regularly ceded to them years ago, we pared to which the one just ended between Servia and Bulgaria will be small indeed.

THE SERVO-BULGARIAN QUESTION. London. November 27.—The statement that the Bulgarians captured Pirot vesterday, after being twice repulsed, is incorrect. It appears that the entire Bulgarian army made an attack on Pirot. A long struggle ensued, during which the Servian artillery rendered excellent service and maintained such an effective fire that the Bulgarians wore repulsed. The losses of the Bulgarians are reported to be very heavy.

Belgrade. December 1st.—The armistice between Servia and Bulgaria is being strictly observed by all parties. Prince Alexander has telegraphed to King Milan his proposals for peace, by which each country will be required, under conditions suggested, respect the integrity of the other's territory. However, it is feared by many that the strong Russian friendship for Bulgaria, with a corresponding feeling on the part of Austria for the Servian Government, will tend to greatly complicate matters.

London, December 1st.—Lord Salisbury has sent a remonstrance to Austria against the latter's preparation for the occupation of Servia. He advises that the Powers co operate for consideration of the Bulgarian demand for an indemnity for the prevention of further hostilities.

The Serve-Bulgarian armistice will continue ten days. The Austrian Minister to Servia has warned Prince Alexander of Bulgaria that if the war be resumed on the question of indemnity, the troops will enter Servia.
